

What's the Buzz About Bees?

Introduction to Beekeeping

Wednesday, May 3 - Scottville Library 6-7 pm

Thinking about becoming a beekeeper or have an interest in bees? Come learn from Randy Lilly, a member of Scottville Beekeepers of Mason County. Randy has been caring for bees for over 12 years. Topics he will review are:

- Best practices in beekeeping
- Bee biology - life cycle
- How to safely set up and maintain a hive
- Colony progression through the seasons

All Mason County District Library programs are free of charge.
Unable to attend in person? Join via Zoom: <https://bit.ly/mcdblbuzz>
